We shall look forward to seeing you . . .

It is with pleasure that we look forward to having you as our guests on the occasion of the Seventh "Browns of Kentucky" Sale. In the past, these events have provided a means whereby Shorthorn breeders from all sections of North America could join friends old and new. We are proud of the contribution these cattle have made in spreading the influence of better Shorthorns over a wide area.

The production of improved livestock is, in itself, a challenge to us all. In our case it is made even more enjoyable, because all the members of our family, and many of our close associates and friends, participate with us.

Many years of effort, many outstanding "Browns of Kentucky" animals of the past, stand behind the cattle we will present on April 22.

When you view these cattle we are certain you will agree that the Shorthorns from Ashbourne and Brown-Forman Experimental Farm as well as the Polled Shorthorns from Sutherland Farms are showing continuous improvement and that those selected for this offering are the best we have ever exposed for sale.

Scene at a former "Browns of Kentucky" sale.

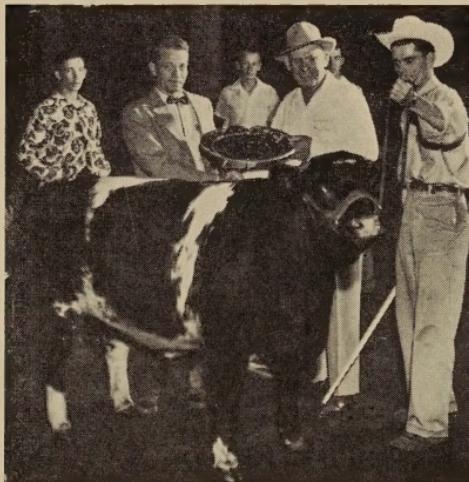

George Garvin Brown,
owner of Sutherland Farms.

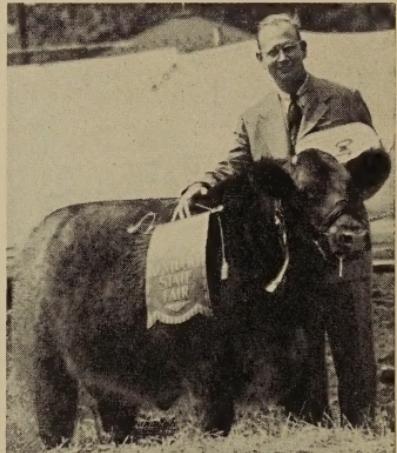

Early Times. Reserve Grand Champion steer over all breeds, 1958 Kentucky State Fair. Sire, Kair Martinet.

We never try to lose sight of the end use of our product. Practically every sire ever used in the herds has been proved through the channels of top steer show winnings. We believe it a valuable tool to our own appraisal of a sire's worth . . . and we believe it important for the breed that leading herds fit a few top steers and exhibit them every year.

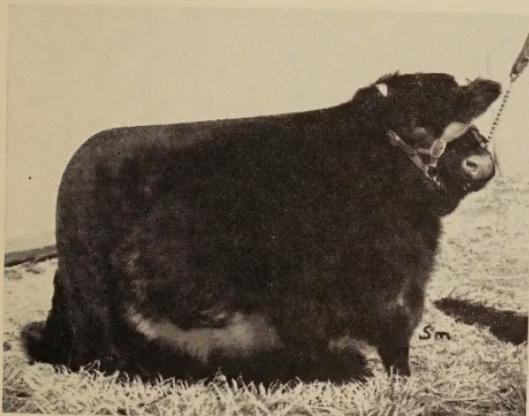

B F Speedy. Grand Champion steer over all breeds, 1953 Kentucky State Fair. Sire, Salton Royal Aristocrat.

Garvin Brown and Sutherland All-Steak. Grand champion Shorthorn, Grand Champion junior yearling over all breeds, 1950 International. Sire, Hickories Ransom 9th.

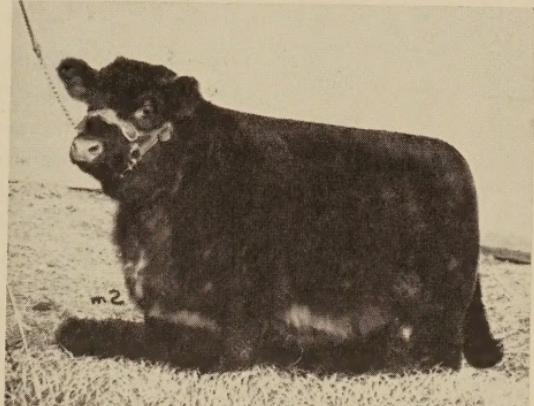

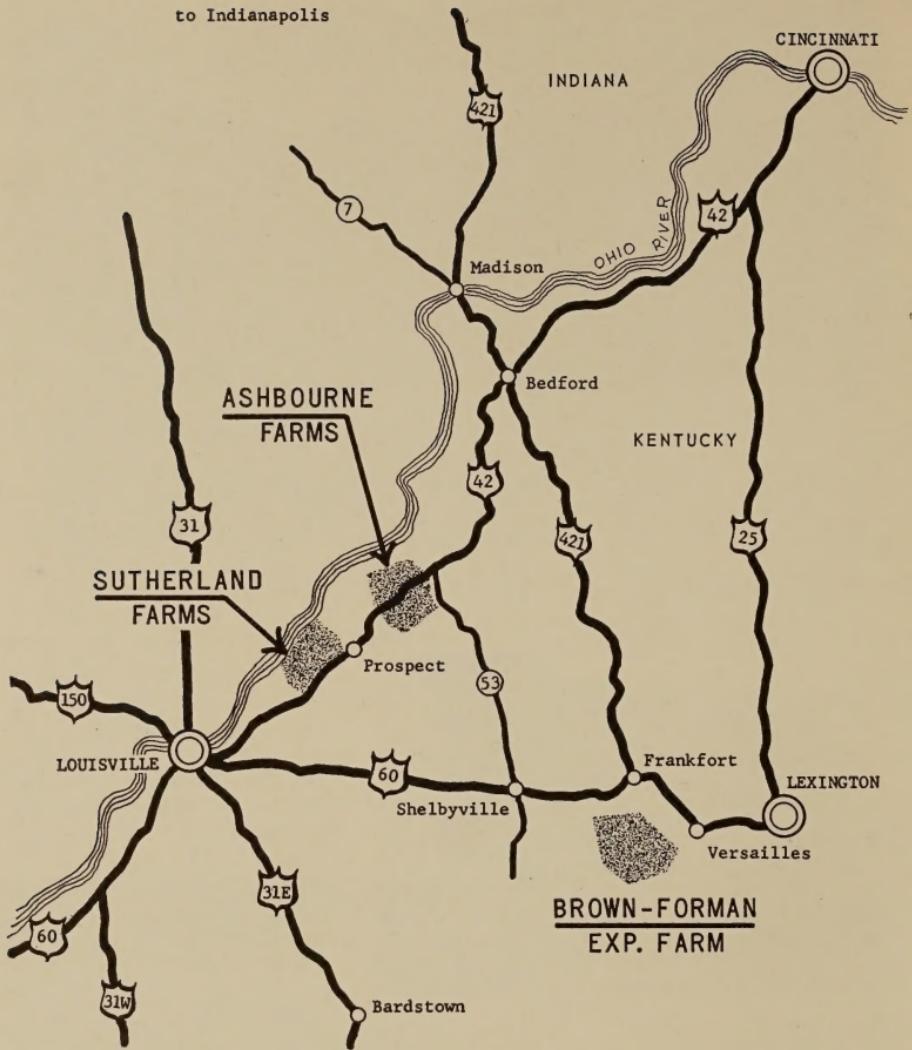

Senior get-of-sire by Ashbourne Bank Balance. This group stood either second or third at 10 major shows in 1960 and early 1961, including third at the International. Three of them sell in this sale. From left to right they are: Ashbourne Trustee (Lot 5), Ashbourne Rosebud 28th (Lot 12), Ashbourne Actress 2d, and Ashbourne Paymaster (Lot 1).

Left — Ashbourne Actress 2d, typical daughter of Ashbourne Bank Balance. Her winnings have been sensational. She was reserve grand champion at the 1960 Tennessee State Fair, Eastern National and the 1961 Denver Shows. She was also reserve junior champion at the Ohio and Indiana State Fairs and second in class at the International.

Right — Ashbourne Augusta Carol 2d, another sweet daughter of Ashbourne Bank Balance. She was first prize junior calf at the 1960 International, Eastern National and 1961 Denver Shows.

Rear ends? You bet! You'll find deep quarters and smooth rumps on the cattle in this sale. And, if you will look at the front view picture of this same group on the front cover of this catalog, you'll agree they have great heads too. This trio won first prize in the junior get-of-sire class at the 1960 International and five strong 1960 State Fairs.

Pedigrees tell an important story. Each is filled with the names of bulls, females and people. To the student of beef cattle the sum total of these names will either instil confidence or fear. Because improvement must be continuous and the produce of what is bought must some day be sold, is it any wonder that careful buyers instinctively place great emphasis on the names of the breeders appearing in a pedigree? No matter how great a breeding bull may prove to be, if the name of his owner is under question, improvement through the use of his offspring will be doubtful and this name will prove a deterrent in the sale of his produce. It does make a difference where and from whom you buy.

Known quantities in any pedigree are the names Ashbourne, Sutherland and Brown-Forman Experimental Farms. The owners have proved that they are dedicated to the improvement of the breed. The managers and herdsmen are excellent cattlemen and above reproach. All are known for utmost reliability. Public records attest the fact that the foundations for these three herds were the best that money could buy, that the stock bulls have been internationally famous, that matings have been planned with care, and that the calves have won top showring awards in competition with the breed's best. Even more important, public records prove that the calves produced have performed properly wherever they have gone and that the guarantees of the owners have been good.

It is a pleasure to commend such men as Lyons Brown, Garvin Brown, Wallace Campbell, Jack Ragsdale, Jim King, Bill Klaber and all others connected with these herds for the contribution they have made to our breed. It is a pleasure also to recommend the cattle in this sale to prospective buyers. They are easily the best ever offered from the three great herds that have become so widely and favorably known under the name "The Browns of Kentucky." Both Shorthorns and Polled Shorthorns are included and they can be purchased with a feeling of utmost confidence.

*Hal Longley

Dark Roan, J. Durno Louada Regalia — A liberal number of the females in this sale are carrying the service of this outstanding sire. Those who buy them may look forward to wonderful calves.

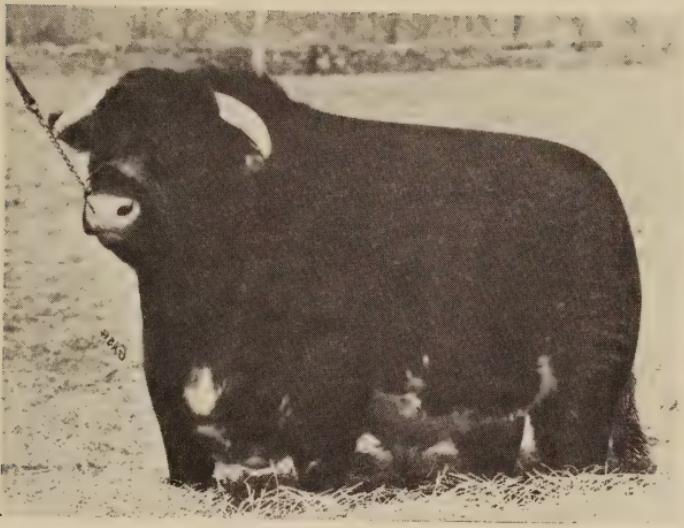

The cow on the left, Rothes Fragrance by Uppermill Metaphor, is the granddam of Louada Regalia. The cow in the center, Louada Rotthes Fragrance by Calrossie Armada, is his dam. The cow on the right is Louada Blood Royal 6th, dam of Louada Bomber, the 1958 International grand champion.

When I first saw Regalia as a calf, he showed every indication of becoming a great stock bull. At the 1958 International he was a stand-out, placing second to Louada Bomber, the grand champion, and going on to win the reserve junior championship.

We were not surprised to learn a short time later that a half interest in this bull had been sold to FraLawn. We kept in mind that Mr. Fray, with his small herd, would, sooner or later, be willing to sell this outstanding bull.

After seeing the calves by Regalia at Louada and FraLawn we did not hesitate to buy a half interest for $10,000. Fray joins Louada in the other half, so both can have the benefit of the bull through the use of frozen semen. We have Louada Regalia . . . he will stay with us in Kentucky permanently. Come and see him. — Wallace Campbell, Mgr., Brown-Forman Experimental Farm.

Browns Of Kentucky Buy Half Interest In Louada Regalia For $10,000

Reprinted from the August 1, 1960 issue of The Shorthorn World

Fralawn Farms, E. A. Fray & Son, Owen Sound, Ont., announced the recent sale of their half interest in Louada Regalia for $10,000 to the Browns of Kentucky herds . . . Ashbourne Farms, owned by W. L. Lyons Brown, LaGrange; Sutherland Farms, owned by George Garvin Brown, Prospect; and the Brown-Forman Experimental Farm, Frankfort. The price for this half interest was $10,000.

Louada Regalia was first brought out as a senior calf at the 1958 International where he placed second in class to his half brother, Louada Bomber, 1958 International grand champion, now owned by Maclyn Plantation, Albany, Ga. Regalia went on to become the reserve junior champion of the show. He was also a member of the winning senior and junior gets, first three bull and two bull groups, and first pair of calves. He is a son of Baption Constructor out of Louada Rothes Fragrance by Calrossie Armada. A full brother, Louada Rodney, sold for $6,500 in the 1959 Louada sale to David Garriott, Scottsburg, Indiana.

Shortly after the 1958 International, a one-half interest in Louada Regalia was sold for $7,500 by Louada to Fralawn. It was this interest that was sold to the Browns. Fray and Louada will share a one-half interest for continued use of the bull through the frozen semen.

The veteran cattleman, Wallace Campbell, manager of Brown-Forman Experimental Farm, was accompanied on his trip to Canada by Jack Ragsdale, manager of the Sutherland Polled Shorthorn herd, and Bill Klaber, herd manager at Ashbourne Farms. After viewing the calves both at Louada and Fralawn by Louada Regalia, their decision to buy was unanimous.

Louada Regalia will make his permanent home in Kentucky and is now in heavy service in the three herds that comprise the "Browns of Kentucky" group. One of his sons, Louada Brocade, bred at Louada Manor Farms, is scheduled for stock bull duty in that famous herd.

ASHBOURNE BANK BALANCE — This imported-in-dam bull was one of the most popular on the 1957-1958 show circuit, winning second prize in the strong junior bull calf class at the 1957 International. He is a son of the 1954 Perth Supreme Champion Burnton Bankbook and his dam is line-bred in the blood of Cruggleton Braemar. He weighed 985 pounds at one year. As an indication of the quality and uniformity of his calves, we remind you that nine members of the first prize ten-head group at the 1961 Denver Show were his sons and daughters. Also, the trio that won first prize in the junior get-of-sire class at the 1960 International and five strong 1960 State Fairs were his calves. His senior "get" stood either 2nd or 3rd at 10 major shows in 1960 and early 1961. Ashbourne Bank Balance is a rugged, heavy boned bull with outstanding quarters and the head of a stock bull. His get and service will be a feature of this sale.

ASHBOURNE ROSEBUD 24TH, above, is typical of the calves by Almahurst Bandmaster. She was reserve senior champion at the 1960 International and Harrisburg Shows, the Tennessee State Fair and was senior champion at the 1961 Denver Show.

B-F LODESTAR'S RANDOLPH — As his name indicates, this bull represents a blend of the blood of two famous International champions, Ringwell Lodestar and Sni-A-Bar Randolph. Because of our admiration for the individuality and siring ability of these two bulls, we are using B-F Lodestar's Randolph liberally in our herds. He is an excellent individual and is certain to prove a great sire.

The past . . . is important to your future.

Prince William 15th.
Former herd sire.
Grand champion, Ohio
Indiana, Kentucky
state fairs, and the Eastern National.

Ashbourne Bank Mercury. First prize senior yearling, 1951 International. Grand champion, 1951 Ohio State Fair. This son of Sni-A-Bar Randolph was used in the herds.

The $7,000 Saltoun Royal Aristocrat. An imported sire that made a great contribution to the herd.

Ashbourne Defender. This son of Saltoun Royal Aristocrat was retained for herd duty and later sold at private treaty for $2,500.

The "Browns of Kentucky" herds have benefited through the improving influence of these former herd sires.

Right — Kair Martinet, an imported son of Corrimony Golden Sovereign that made a great name for himself.

Left — Sni-A-Bar Randolph, twice an International reserve grand champion and sire of many outstanding cattle including a group that won first prize in the get-of-sire class at the International. Used in the Brown's herds for ten years.

Right — Drummondreach Advocate, Supreme Champion 1953 Perth Show and Sale and used with success until his recent death. Sire, Calrossie Balmoral.

IMPORTED BLOOD OF THE VERY BEST.

In 1956 members of the Brown organization made a trip to Scotland and purchased a liberal number of the best females available. All were selected for the particular improvement of the breed in general. None were purchased for speculative purposes.

Visitors on sale day will note the influence of this improving Scottish blood. Ashbourne Bank Balance, whose calves will be a feature of this sale, was out of one of these imported cows and sired by the 1954 Perth supreme champion Burnton Bankbook. The two winning show heifers pictured on this page are sired by Burnton Bankbook and out of imported cows.

This unretouched snapshot was taken when Ashbourne Bank Balance was in yearling form. His calves resemble him closely, with plenty of bone, substance and heavy rear ends.

And now comes the parade of sale animals. Lots 1 through 42 are Shorthorns from Ashbourne and Brown-Forman Experimental Farms. Lots 43 through 60 are Polled Shorthorns from Sutherland and Ashbourne Farms. The bulls in each division are excellent and are certain to make their new owners famous. The females of both kinds will work improvement wherever they go. All are backed by blends of proven blood. The Browns have bred a lot into these cattle. You can breed a lot out of them.

PLEASE REMEMBER . . . The breeders participating in this sale practice calfhood vaccination and all three herds are Bang's Certified.

The bulls in this sale are the best ever offered from the Browns of Kentucky Herds.

ASHBOURNE PAYROLL — This is one of our first calves representing a blend of the blood of Ashbourne Bank Balance, Almahurst Bandmaster and Sni-A-Bar Randolph. He looks very promising to us and, backed by such a blood combination, should prove an excellent sire. Ashbourne Clipper 22nd, pictured above, is his three-quarters sister that won her class at the Tennessee State Fair and the Pennsylvania Livestock Exposition and was a member of our first prize junior get at the International and many state fairs.

ASHBOURNE HEAD CASHIER — Here is a bull capable of heading a very strong herd. He has the head of a stock bull and what it takes to go with it. He stood first in the strong junior bull calf class at five strong 1960 state fairs and was a junior or reserve junior champion at three of them. At the strong Kentucky State Fair he was named reserve grand champion. We used him throughout the season as a member of our junior get-of-sire group that won first prizes at six strong 1960 shows, including the International Live Stock Show. Note that this bull is out of a wonderful daughter of Kair Ranger and is line-bred in the blood of the famous Calrossie Crocus Count.

BROWN-FORMAN CHALLENGER — A strong demand for white bulls has developed in the major beef growing areas. Here's one of the best. His sire was an International first prize winner. His dam is a great producing cow. Her first calf was a red heifer by Louada Factor and she, in turn, is also one of our best producers. Challenger shows every indication of making a real herd sire. He has the head of a great stock bull, is thick and smooth and would make an excellent showing in the junior yearling class this year.

THE POLLED SHORTHORN SECTION

Polled Shorthorn enthusiasts will get a tremendous lift at the strong quality group presented in this sale by Sutherland. Since it is the largest draft of Polled Shorthorns from this herd to be offered in one sale to date, breeders everywhere will immediately recognize that this is certain to become one of the world's leading sources of improving Polled Shorthorn blood. Up to now the herd has been in its building years. This is not only the first time it has been possible to offer a strong, representative group of Sutherland-bred females, but the quality of the bulls from which to choose this year's offering was also naturally at its strongest point.

The group in this sale will indicate that the 100% dehorning Lynnwood Ringleader x is designed to be recognized as one of the breed's great sires. Those who use this blood will certainly find an immediate buyer response for their productions.

EUREKA SECRET 17TH x, grand champion female, 1959 National Polled Shorthorn Congress, purchased for $2,150 by Sutherland Farm. She is typical of the females in the Eureka herd which was purchased in its entirety by Sutherland Farm.

Rarely has a herd been put together with such care, judgment, and with such a determination to breed only the best to the best. The Sutherland herd combines the top females that have been made available for sale in both branches of the breed, with Polled Shorthorn herd sires that are respected throughout the industry.

Even without the purchase of the Eureka herd, formerly owned by Herbert Weber, Edgerton, Ohio, Sutherland was rapidly becoming recognized as a rising star in the Polled ranks. However, the acquisition of the Eureka herd of 30 breeding age females can leave no doubt as to the status of Sutherland Polled Shorthorns today.

Through the inclusion of this draft of 16 lots from Sutherland, Polled Shorthorn breeders will find even more reason to be with us than ever before.

F. V. Ragsdale, left, of Indiana, visits with Sutherland owner, Garvin Brown, and manager Jack Ragsdale, right, and wife Ruth, when Sutherland was host to the 1960 Kentucky Field Day.

LYNNWOOD POLICY x — Was used in the Lynnwood herd prior to coming to Sutherland. His first daughter was champion female 1953 Hoosier Harvest of Stars Sale. We sold an outstanding daughter in 1960 at the Hoosier Blue Ribbon Sale to Ed and Aldyth Long. Many of the top brood cows at Lynnwood are sired by Glen Knolls Monarch x, Policy's sire, and his dam is one of the top producers at Lynnwood Farm. She was top open heifer of the Cherry Hill Dispersal.

EUREKA FASCINATION 3D x — A two-thirds interest in this bull was purchased for $4,000 by Sutherland Farms and Louis A. Meyer, Anchorage, Kentucky, one-third interest being retained by Herbert Weber & Sons. He was shown very successfully by the Webers, being first prize junior bull calf and reserve junior champion at the 1957 International. He was grand champion at the 1958 Harrisburg Show where he defeated the 1958 International grand champion. We have an excellent set of calves by him and we believe you will like the two daughters we are selling in this sale. He is a son of Tulleevin's great breeding bull, the International grand champion, L F Fascination x.

Right — Here's the bull we are grooming for junior herd bull duty. His name is Sutherland Ringleader x and he will be a senior yearling at 1961 shows. He is by Lynnwood Ringleader x. His dam, Marellbar Jilt 10th, is a full sister to the dam of Lynnwood Nobleman x and also a full sister to Marellbar Jilt 9th that sold at $3,800 to Tempel Farms, Wadsworth, Illinois.

Right — Cathy Ragsdale, Sutherland Farm, Prospect, Ky., holds a son of Lynnwood Policy x that was champion Shorthorn at the 1960 Bourbon Beef Show. Bob Heine awards the trophy.

SUTHERLAND ACHILLES x — A calf that individually will speak for himself. Stood second as junior calf at the Kentucky State Fair in horned competition, as well as being a member of the second prize pair of calves, and second prize junior "get." In this pedigree you can see some of the program here at Sutherland, blending the best bloodlines available but still maintaining the polled factor. Marellbar Augusta Ora cost $2,750 in a Marellbar sale. We predict you will have the urge to buy this bull because he's that kind. Kentucky Beef Cattle Performance Test Index of 145.

SUTHERLAND CROCUS 2ND x — This heifer is the oldest daughter of Lynnwood Ringleader we now have. His first daughter, Sutherland Red Lady, first prize junior calf at the 1960 Indiana State Fair, we had the great disappointment to lose soon after returning from Chicago, where she placed third. We had planned to offer her in this sale but her death left us with no other heifers of suitable age by Ringleader x to offer. This Crocus heifer is a great one, we think, certainly too young to sell, but we thought it important to sell a heifer by Ringleader x in the sale. Avenel Crocus x, the dam, is one of the most admired cows on the farm and her first daughter was second prize junior yearling at the 1960 Indiana State Fair. We would like to show this heifer through Chicago and would put her safe in calf to Louada Regalia, if the buyer so desires. Avenel Crocus, the dam, is a daughter of the $20,000 International grand champion TPS Max Coronet 5th.

Please note —

The next five lots are bred heifers. Three of them carry the service of Lynnwood Ringleader x, one is bred to Eureka Fascination 3d x and one to the $20,000 Louada Regalia. What a great start in the Polled Shorthorn business some man would have if he bought all of them!

SUTHERLAND MAYFLOWER x — A double bred Fascination and a heifer we thought would cross well with Louada Regalia, the great $20,000 son of Bapton Constructor, in which we own an interest along with Ashbourne and Brown-Forman Experimental Farm. These Mayflowers have been a good producing family for Herb Weber as well as for us. Sells bred to Louada Regalia. Out of the same cow as Sutherland Exponent, top bull at $1,000 in our last sale, selling to Mary Elizabeth Meyer, Anchorage, Ky.

Please note —

Lots 55, 56, 57, 58 and 59 are all daughters of Lynnwood Policy x, our great breeding son of Glen Knolls Monarch x. They are a uniform group and would make a wonderful foundation if someone had nerve enough to buy all of them. All are selling open.

Yes, there are bargains in the Browns of Kentucky sales! Frank Moss, Nicholasville, Ky., got this good bull, Sutherland Leader x, for $400. He is out of the same dam as Lot 55.

Shorthorns again lead in all divisions of Kentucky Performance Testing Program.

Shorthorns topped blacks and whites for the second straight year in the Kentucky Performance Testing program, according to figures released by the University of Kentucky. As in 1959, Shorthorns led in all divisions — weaning weight, average daily gain, type score, index value and weight per day of age.

The 1960 summary includes information on the performance of 5,519 suckling calves. There are presently over 200 herds participating in the testing program and they represent over 10,000 cows. The purpose of the program is to maintain Kentucky's favorable competitive position as a source of quality beef stock. In order to continually improve the state's breeding stock and efficiency of production, this program is designed to aid the breeder in eliminating poor producing cows and sires and in selecting the superior performing strains.

This year's test proves that Shorthorn cows are the best milk producers as indicated by weaning weights and daily gain figures. The type scores, which were also topped by Shorthorns, are related to the sire's influence.

The average daily gain figures are obtained by subtracting the birth weight from the actual weight and dividing by the age in days. The adjusted average daily gain puts all calves on a common basis by correcting for the age of dam, sex of calf, and season of birth. The type score is a numerical value for conformation starting with the ideal as 17. The most important economic characteristics which beef cattle possess are weight and type or conformation. These are weighed equally and make up the index value.

As the report points out, postweaning performance is important in selecting replacement females and herd sires. The figures here deal only with performance of calves before weaning and are important in culling cows. Following weaning, when the animal is no longer under the influence of its dam's milking ability, the individual expresses its own genetic potential. However, levels of feeding and other conditions vary extremely in the Kentucky postweaning tests and direct comparisons between herds and breeds are not too indicative of comparative performance. Ashbourne Farms, Sutherland Farms and Brown-Forman Experimental Farms were all included in the 1960 tests.
